PRESS RELEASE

02/22/2010 – ALERT – SCSO SEEKING INFORMATION - Seneca County Sheriff's Deputies are investigating a hit and run car/pedestrian accident that occurred on February 20th, 2010, at about 5:30 a.m., on Wagner Street in the Town of Waterloo. Dawn M. Turi, 33, 121 44th Street, Lindenhurst, New York, was shoveling snow and was at the end of a driveway on Wagner Street. It is believed that Turi may have been in the road when a van struck her. Turi was thrown into a snow bank and the van left the scene. Turi was transported to the Geneva General Hospital Emergency Department by private vehicle for treatment of hip pain. The van is described as a black full-size early-1980's van. There is no description of the driver or license plate number. The van may have sustained front bumper damage and was last seen eastbound on Wagner Street. If anyone witnessed the accident or has any information about the van, please contact the Seneca County Sheriff's Office at (315) 220-3250.
