PRESS RELEASE

07/04/2010 Seneca County Sheriff's Deputies are investigating a hit and run car/pedestrian motor vehicle accident that occurred on County Road 139 near Verona Village in the Village of Ovid. On July 4th, 2010 at about 3:10 P.M., Joshua M. Griswold, 14, of 7119 Prospect Street, Ovid, New York, was walking eastbound on the shoulder of County Road 139 and was struck in the arm and the side of his body by a westbound vehicle. Griswold sustained minor injuries and was checked over by South Seneca Ambulance. Griswold, with parental approval refused further medical treatment. The vehicle was last seen eastbound on County Road 139 as it turned around after the accident and is described as a newer four door, dark green Hyundai Elantra with an unknown license plate number. The vehicle may have passenger side damage to the side mirror and passenger side front door. The driver was described as a white male and there were no other occupants in the vehicle. If anyone witnessed the accident or has any information about the accident, please contact the Seneca County Sheriff's Office at (315) 220-3250.
